*Note – Gilbert and Sullivan shows are in the public domain and no royalties are required, just rental or purchase of scripts and music.

2. Identify the Musical Director and Producer first
3. Complete the Proposal Form for LALO Board review
4. Submit completed forms via mail or electronically by February 28, 2017.
5. Completed proposals will be reviewed by the LALO Board, and directors will be invited to come to present their proposal.

General Information:

- LALO 2018 Production will be held on the following dates: 2/23, 2/24, 2/25, 3/2, and 3/3 at the Duane Smith Auditorium.
- Suggested that auditions to be held in October, 2017, with rehearsals to begin in November, 2017.
- Please consider these criteria: availability (from the rights-holder – depends on whether the show is still on Broadway or on tour), good music, large cast with both women and men, dancing, uplifting, family-friendly, not "dated" (with inappropriate racial, cultural references) and not presented recently in Los Alamos.
- Rehearsals are held in a variety of locations around Los Alamos (local churches do not typically charge much for rent if anything). In February, rehearsals will mostly be moved to Duane Smith Auditorium.
- Your creativity in keeping costs down is an overall benefit for LALO.
- Duane Smith Auditorium info: <http://laschools.net/domain/6>
- If your proposal is selected, the LALO Board is available to assist as needed.
- All proposals and directors will have an opportunity to present their plan to the LALO Board.
